The cover features a central illustration of King Spawn, a muscular, pale-skinned figure with a white mask and a black skull-like face. He is bound by chains and has a red, spiky cape. A small skull with 'VX' on it is visible near his waist. The background is a mix of orange and teal. In the top left corner, there is a white box containing the 'image' logo, the issue number '50', the date 'OCT', and the price '$4.99 US'. Below this box, the names of the creative team are listed. At the bottom, the title 'KING SPAWN' is written in a large, stylized font with a skull in the letter 'A'.
